Controlco Starter Spill Kit – General Purpose - 50L

Product Code: 13-1078

Product Features

This kit provides the confidence you need to tackle the spills that happen to most small businesses most often. Don't worry, nobody's perfect. The main thing is to be ready!

This kit means your response will be quick and effective. Because the kit is "general purpose" it deals with oils as well as water-based liquids. It's not like having to have the right fire extinguisher – this kit will work for most common spill stuff. From paint to engine oil.

If you need something like this, but bigger, take a look at the Controlco Starter Spill Kit – General Purpose - 100L | 13-1063.
